GAME OPENINGS APPEAR IN THE "DIPLOMACY SCENE", beginning below.....

- + THE DIPLOMACY SCENE +
1. HOOSIER ARCHIVES DOES IT AGAIN.....AND AGAIN! HA # 81, available from Walt Buchanan, R3 Lebanon Ind. 46052 for 15/$2, contains some interesting lists and data. A complete list of Diplomacy publications now in print appear in order of appearance on the Diplomacy scene. (LD is # 10, by the way). Also included is the result of both the Beyerlein Poll #4, and the Archives Poll # 3. ((LD will carry a ballot for EIP in its next issue)). Not resting on this achievement, HA is sponsoring the "AVERAGE ACES GAME". A game in which the total number of wins for all 7 players is 35. ((Your poor editor only has 2 wins now and a third coming within 1 month--that's why Walt had to call it "average", sob.)) The game will be reviewed by Rick Brooks and will carry press from some excellent press writers including; Brenton VerPloeg, Edi Birsan, Gene Prosnitz, John McCallum, Hal Naus, Rod Walker, Carol Buchanan (it is her husband's 'zine, youknow), Doug Beyerlein and yours truly. Why not come on an watch?
  2. THE IDA NOW HAS 106 members! FANFARE! A complete list is available from Membership Secretary Steve Bell, 5605 Virgilwood Dr., Greensboro, N.C. 27409 for the membership fee of $1. (This will go up to $2 next year to meet the increased costs of publication and activities) ....but join now, in time to get in and vote, and run, for all offices in the organization.
  3. ISN'T AN ARMADILLO AN ANIMAL? Not to Diplomacy players! It's Steve Cooper's (3073 S. Buchanan St. B-z, Arlington Va. 22206) Diplomacy zine. Very excellent publication! Game openings, Game fee unknown. "Coop" wants everyone to register to vote in 1972. I couldn't agree more. I don't know if he's a McGovern supporter or not. I certainly hope he is! I don't think Coop will cop out like loyal Democrat Larry Peery has done and vote for tricky Dick.
  4. Want to know how you rate? If you have finished a game of Diplomacy, you'll find your name in the Pfennig/Halbpennig ODD rating list, published by John Mc Callum, PO Bx 52, Ralston, Alberta, Canada. Another excellent zine, worth your investment!

XX

5. Edi Birsan has asked for players to RATE what position they feel is best, 2nd best, etc in a Diplomacy game. I, unfortunately, do not have room this issue to reproduce the form, but if you answer the questions, which appear below, send them to me with your orders, or directly to Edi Birsan 48-20, 39th St., Long Island City, N.Y. 11104.

I. Rank the most desirable results in a Diplomacy game from 1-13.

1 (most desirable), 13 least desirable. The 13 results are;

Win, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 2 way draw, 3 way draw, 4 way draw, 5 way draw, 6 way draw, & 7 way draw.

II. For each of the 6 statements below write "strongly agree", "Somewhat Agree", "Disagree Somewhat", or "Strongly Disagree"

1. If I can not win a game then the best thing to do is to try to stop the front runner by stalemating the game.

2. I will not turn on an ally even if it looks as if he is going to win and I am going to finish second.

3. I will not stab an ally even if it looks as if he is going to win and I am going to finish third.

4. Once a player has attacked me in a game I will not ally with him in that game, even if it means letting another player win.

5. Most players will try to finish as strongly as possible in a game, even giving up the chance for a stalemated game if it means they can finish second.

6. The distance between finishing second and finishing third is the same as finishing fourth and finishing fifth.

To correlate the data please supply these facts:

1. AGE, 2. Years in Postal Diplomacy, 3. Years PLAYING Postal Diplomacy, and 4. # of games completed postally.

Comments to Edi are welcomed!!

6. SO THE ROHAN SYSTEM ISN'T ALL THAT BAD AFTER ALL!. In our last issue we asked if players could find their way around in my notation and whether my system was better than others in use. 10 people PREFERRED revised Rohan to other systems. Only 3 found it worse, claiming they had to learn a new system. Further comment is expected/welcome, of course!

7. DEADLINES to become uniform! Currently your poor editor is just up against it! LD 34 was late because of DIPLOCAN V, this issue is late because I couldn't use the press last weekend (it's not my press, you see). The only way I can keep on an even keel is to keep the deadlines the same for all games, regardless of season. However, I am going to begin requesting conditional builds with fall seasons and conditional springs with winter builds. Note that this is NOT a requirement! If I get conditional builds and/or conditional springs from all players I will publish 2 seasons at once, but only then!

8. I'M GOING TO MAKE A PROMISE I HOPE I CAN KEEP! Next issue will include a revised mailing list and revised houserules, I hope. That will cost me 16¢, ugh!, so I may blanch at the last moment. After all with a circ. of just under 150 that an additional $12!

9. THE PLATYPUS PIE, DUNG IN YOUR EYE, OR ELOCUTIONISTS NIGHTMARE! To my amazement "GLOMPH" arrived at my apartment last night! Closer inspection found it to be the reprint of a buyer's guide for oranges (organes to some) in the United States. This yellow+red expose was tainted with Diplomacy games, pre-bankruptcy statements, forms, and 9 pages (numbered 8) on 8 sides of 4 pieces of paper with one page zero--unless you were lucky enough to get 2 page 6-7-8's on which list issue's error involving page 2 + 5 and lack of 6 was explained! For further information, to page 10....

MUSINGS

by Larry Blandin

A continuing--albeit sporadic, as promised --column of comments and insights .

DIPLO-CON V

Diplo-Con V was an overwhelming success by any measurable criteria that we know of. Early this Spring, Archivist Buchanan queried, "Do you guys really think you can get enough people for the 49 man tournament?" Well, a little over 100 Diplomacy enthusiasts were there along with Allan Calhamer and GRI'S John Moot.

John Beshara, Rod Walker, Fred Winter, Chris Schleicher, Larry Perry, et al in the same building! Hundreds and hundreds of wargamers, (possibly thousands) curiosity seekers, the press and media wandering from room after room of gaming, thousands of dollars of priceless ancient museum pieces, seemingly endless meetings of the IDA countered by a John Beshara hosted cocktail party (frankly your author much preferred the latter ((hic))) and delightful little vignettes like walking down to the trade exhibition center about 11:30 p.m. on a report from hotel security that some suspicious characters were loitering in the Exhibition Hall. Indeed, there was a motley crew lurking there. "Hi, I'm John Smythe!" "Rod Walker here!" "I'm John Boyer", "Major Lipson here," and best of all, Queen Suzanne was accompanying Walt B., whom I can tell anywhere because of the hay in his hair. Doug Boyerlein polling people on their opinions about polls, Rod Walker typing for me in the museum room at 3 a.m. Saturday morning, an irate Edi Birsan Sunday morning because he hadn't won the trial round of his contest on Saturday for Diplomacy's Grand Cup (dubbed the Chamber Pot" by Chris Schleicher), Avalon Hill's exhibition representative and editor of the General arriving very late Friday night making the first of a string of simple requests, "Where do you get a beer in this town!" (Obviously a foreigner to these hazy parts.) Lon Lakofka pacing up and down on Sunday. (Blandin, next year I'll control the budget!" --Cut to a picture of your humble reporter quietly chuckling to himself.) And so it went.

As a special aside, before this report goes any farther, it must be acknowledged that the show was a smashing success singularly because so many Diplomacy fans gave unsparingly of their time and resources. Many thanks to all of the publishers who gave up editorial space to run our fliers and other plugs. But there was one local fan who gave consistent and unique help at critical moments.

CHRIS SCHLEICHER was seldom seen in the planning, but at desperate moments Chris always came forward to provide critical assistance. When logistics were required, Chris was providing the car and delivering supplies. When a major mass media promotion was on, Chris helped in every way possible, never asking why, but spotting a deficiency and leaping in. He GMed the 49 man tournament on Saturday and started the winners' playoff on Saturday until too ill to continue. And countless other things that would take too much space to enumerate. Not just myself, or Lem, but for the entire hobby we want to thank you for giving so much so that the rest of the hobby could have so much enjoyment. Again, thank you!!

Diplo-Con VI will again be held in Chicago (the last time for a while and the last time it will be in a spot that is centrally located in the nation) sometime in the last week of June, 1973. It shall be bigger and better than this year. With some wilder plans and another chance for Edi Birsan to take a crack at the Cup. Boy do we have plans for next year!!! (Now about next year's budget Lon... .)

In the space remaining, I want you to consider writing the newspaper publisher in your area inquiring about carrying as a syndicated feature "The Game Room" now carried each week in the Chicago Tribune (The World's Greatest Newspaper it says). Write to your local weekend editor and publisher with the request. It'll help.

from the zine that really SHOULD be called SMUT, write Brenton Ver Ploeg, 520 Parker Ave., #202, San Francisco Cal. 94118, send him $2 (you get a baker's dozen) and tell him LD is better and more wholesome!

10. PANDIMONIMUM PUBLICATIONS is only sleeping! Rod Walker is taking his first vacation in 6 years. The presses will begin to roll in a few days says Rod. But where's my game Rod??

11. "MUSINGS"

This irregular column hereby moves to space available status. I have other items I want to include in this issue but could not because of Blandin's column. Once the analysis of LD 16 begins (with LD 36) MUSINGS will become expendable.

12. PBM SCRABBLE GOES ON. Page 6 has a hasty summation of the results of the first 7 letters given to the players. They were; E G O S T Y Z__ all three players made the 7 letter word ZYGOTES! Our next 7 letters are; N P C I E U A. What can be done with that??

13. Be herely notified that any moves sent to other than 4970 N. Narine Dr. apt 525 Chicago Ill 60640 are not my responsibility! Players continue to send moves to my old Richmond Address! These moves WILL be accepted BUT I can not guarantee that I will be home to visit my parents before a deadline! If I pick them up after the daedline you lose! ALSO DO NOT SEND SPECIAL DELIVERY TO RICHMOND STREET. My mother is quite sick and can't be bothered with going up and down the stairs for such letters. If SD mail is sent to Richmond Street you'll get it back unopened!

14. IF YOU HAVE NOT REGISTERED to vote, do so NOW! This election year is too important to be pushed aside. Some have critized Sen. McGovern for being too "radical". Such a lable is not in accord with the majority of the Senator's plans and proposals. The alternative is a sluggish high unemployment economy, umbrellas for special interests, a muddled indoChina policy, a Vice President who could become the leader of this country and is in his own right the "winning compromise" and a tactless ass! His wins in his home state come form opposition dividing the vote and he carrying the remainder!! Richard Nixon has lied on many issues and waved the American flag in our faces ad nausea! The man is a quack, and not a statesman. Let's throw the beggar out!
